IT'S FEBRUARY ALREADY ...

There hasn't been a lot of input from members, so I'm going to have to make up a lot of piffle for everyone to read!

One thing that did happen was the Ex-POW Memorial in Ballarat had it's 8th Anniversary on Sunday, 5th February, and there were about 600 people who attended the service. On the day, it was horribly windy in Ballarat, and you may ask "how does she know that?". I'll tell you - I was in Ballarat on that day! Both the Vice President and the Treasurer of the Ringwood RSL attended the service, but I was dropped off to visit family instead. At least I was out of the wind.

I've also been asked to correct something that was mentioned in the Women's Auxiliary page from last month. I said that the Bingo jackpot each week was $500, but I'm sorry to say that it is only $100. Apparently it was a special event that I'd seen from last year - and I apologise if I made anybody incredibly excited for no reason whatsoever.
